for our wine dinner on

Monday, February 27th, 2017

Robert Parker praises his bottlings as “a solid group of wines” & “impressive”.

From an historic vineyard originally planted to vine in the 1870s, the property is nestled against the Mayacamas atop the famed alluvial fan.

The evening will feature a multi-course Chef’s menu paired with Scott’s wines for only $125pp++ and begin at 7p.
